God bless you for your sacrifice of time, sleep and food on behalf of lost souls and the needs of others.

From Pastor's Desk

We are living in very unusual circumstances. Sadly, advised that the church building due to the Covid-19 situation, we cannot assemble in the House of God to worship together as we have done for so many years. The same restrictions that we were under for the past month have been extended until the end of November. Many of you have expressed your desire to be in the sanctuary, lifting up your voices in praise to our God. However, the government will not permit us to have more than 25 persons in the building at any given time. Therefore, we have only the pastors, the musicians and singers, the sound and projection workers and the live stream technicians in house for our services. We so long for the day when we can return to normal and have all of you here again. Until then, we invite you to join online with us for worship, prayer and the Word of God. Your contact with the Body of Christ is vital to your spiritual life. In addition, please keep your daily

God will bless you for your faithfulness. The work of evangelism continues via technology and in our Saint-Laurent Church network people are still being reached with the Gospel and there are baptisms and people receiving the Gift of the Holy Ghost on a weekly basis. Bible studies continue to be taught. Youth services and Sunday School continue virtually each week. We are so thankful for all of the workers involved in the various ministries. God bless you for the giving of your time and abilities to the work of God. We will continue to serve the Lord together and reach lost people with the Gospel. - Pastor Paul Graham
